Headline:
Unsettled, windy and wet at times.

Today:
Early rain should clear by midday but with a few showers following. Becoming largely dry and bright through the afternoon. Windy at first with coastal gales in the east, this soon easing. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry and clear during the evening and first part of the night, with chilly temperatures in rural spots. Cloud and wind increasing later, with the odd shower possible by dawn. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:
Increasingly wet and windy through the morning, with heavy rain arriving by lunchtime. Gales developing for many, perhaps severe along coasts. Wind easing later. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
After early rain clears, largely dry with coastal showers Sunday. Showery Monday, these heavy at times and perhaps thundery. Breezy both days. Potentially wet and windy again on Tuesday.
